Where should I judge?

A zone will normally be allocated to you prior to the procession. Judging should not take place in any rest area or other areas as indicated by local judging instructions

Even avoiding these areas, there are miles of route along which judging can take place. Judges are respectfully requested not to congregate in pairs or small groups and to try not to stand in front of the same people all night. The judging will be fairer for all concerned if the judges are spread over a wide area within the zones. In addition, if judges do congregate, and they may well be judging different classes, the perception to the public and competitors alike is that collusion is taking place.

Whenever possible, judges are asked to judge both sides of all entries in their class. It is recognised that the sheer number of entries in some classes may make this impractical. Please do the best you can with the time available.

Each entry in these classes are marked under 4 different categories which are - General Effect & Entertainment Value, Costume & Make up, Presentation & Routine and Ingenuity.

Your categories are: -

- Presentation & Routine: Walking or Mounted; with or without props, the ability to bring to life the theme of the entry and the effort to do so should be assessed.
- Ingenuity: The skill in the use of costume and props to portray and enhance the theme. (Definition of Ingenuity = Cleverness, Resourcefulness, Initiative, Originality, Inventiveness, Skill, Creativity & Cunning)

General Information

Please re-acquaint yourself with the rule(s) for your particular class above. Single Masqueraders, Pairs and sometimes even groups can be difficult to see, so judges in these classes need to be extra vigilant, it is very easy for them to get mingled up with other groups or pedestrians. The most important element of a walking entry is usually the costume and make up. Please use the full spread of points in all categories.

What should I do if I see an entry deliberately holding up the procession?

The smooth flow of the procession is critical to the future of our carnival. We therefore seek the assistance of our judges in controlling the flow of entries. If an entry is considered by a judge to be holding back, posing for video cameras perhaps, or creating an "advantageous gap" for judging or effect purposes then the judge should draw the attention of the procession marshals to the offender. If the offence is thought to be serious enough penalties may be imposed on the offender. Penalties could include the deduction of points from each judge's total for any offending entry. This will be subject to the S C G F C A's guidance on the methods of dealing with the imposition of penalties to entrants.
